Which personal data is collected?

In connection with the preparation, implementation, and follow-up of our Annual General Meeting (AGM), we process the following personal data:

- Personal details (e.g., first name and surname)
- Contact details (e.g., address, e-mail address, telephone number)
- Where applicable, the personal details of the authorized shareholder representative including their contact details
- Share-related data (e.g., custodian bank, number of shares, type of ownership of shares, proof of ownership)
- AGM-related data (e.g., number of the registration confirmation, access code to the AGM portal, voting, day and time of voting, powers of attorney and instructions issued, first and last name of the person who voted, any statements, requests to speak, questions, motions, and objections).

¹ In the interests of readability, this convocation does not use gender-specific terms. All references to persons are to be understood as gender neutral.

Should the personal data not be provided by the persons concerned in the course of registering for the Annual General Meeting, the custodian bank or another third party involved in the registration process transmits the personal data to us.

For what purposes and on what legal basis is your data processed?

The shares of GFT Technologies SE are bearer shares. In accordance with Article 21 of the Articles of Incorporation of GFT Technologies SE, shareholders are required to register in order to participate in the Annual General Meeting. As a rule, the custodian banks or the ultimate intermediaries and/or intermediaries provide us with the necessary personal data.

The processing of this and other personal data of the shareholders and shareholder representatives is mandatory for the proper preparation, implementation, and follow-up of the virtual Annual General Meeting as well as for enabling the participation of the persons concerned in the virtual Annual General Meeting and the exercising of all rights by means of electronic communication. The processing of personal data is carried out for the purposes provided for or stated in the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG) (cf. also section 67e (1) AktG). To this extent, the processing is necessary for the fulfillment of legal obligations pursuant to article 6 (1) point (c) GDPR.

In addition, we may also process your personal data to comply with other legal obligations, such as regulatory requirements and retention obligations under stock corporation, commercial, and tax law. For example, in order to comply with the provisions of stock corporation law (section 134 (3) AktG), we need to keep a verifiable record of the data used to prove the authorization of proxies appointed by the Company for the Annual General Meeting for a period of three years. This processing is also necessary for the fulfillment of legal obligations pursuant to article 6 (1) point (c) GDPR.

In individual cases, such as for the organization and orderly implementation of the Annual General Meeting and our defense in legal disputes, we also process your data to protect our legitimate interests pursuant to article 6 (1) point (f) GDPR.

Which personal data is collected when using our website and for which purposes and on which legal basis is the data processed?

Which categories of recipients do we share your data with, if any?

Your personal data will be processed within GFT Technologies SE by those employees involved in the organization of the Annual General Meeting.

In order to hold the Annual General Meeting, and in particular to facilitate the provision of the AGM portal, we use external service providers who are bound by data processing agreements to comply with data protection regulations (article 28 GDPR). These service providers only receive the personal data required for the execution of the respective order and process this data exclusively in accordance with our instructions.

All employees of GFT Technologies SE and the employees of the commissioned service providers who have access to and/or process personal data are obliged to treat this data confidentially.

In addition, personal data is made available to shareholders and shareholder representatives within the scope of the statutory provisions, namely via the list of participants pursuant to section 129 (4) in conjunction with (1) sentences 2 and 3 AktG and the making available of statements pursuant to section 130a (1) to (4) AktG. In connection with the announcement of shareholder requests for additions to the agenda, as well as the making available of counter motions and election nominations by shareholders, personal data may be published on publicly accessible channels, such as the Company's website and/or the Federal Gazette ("Bundesanzeiger") in accordance with legal requirements.

Moreover, we may be obliged to transmit your personal data to further recipients, such as the Commercial Register and authorities for the fulfillment of legal obligations.

Your data will not be stored by us outside the European Economic Area.

How long do we store your personal data?

We delete your personal data in accordance with legal regulations, in particular when the personal data is no longer necessary for the original purposes of collection or processing, the data is no longer required in connection with any administrative or legal proceedings, and there are no legal retention obligations.

What are your data protection rights?

As a data subject, you may contact us at any time under the legal requirements with an informal communication using the above contact details in order to exercise your rights, the requirements of which must be checked in each individual case, in accordance with GDPR and, if applicable, the German Stock Corporation Act (AktG). You have the right to:

- Information about your personal data (article 15 GDPR), as far as there is no exception according to section 34 BDSG
- Information about the origin of the data, the purpose and the end of the processing, the details of the data controllers, the data processors, and the parties to whom the data is disclosed
- Rectification of inaccurate data or completion of incomplete data (article 16 GDPR and section 67e (4) AktG)
- Erasure of personal data if it is no longer needed to fulfill the above-mentioned purposes (article 17 GDPR), unless there is a restriction under section 35 BDSG
- Restriction of data processing (article 18 GDPR)
- Data portability by making it accessible in electronic form (article 20 GDPR)
- Information about your right to object according to article 21 GDPR
- Object to the processing of your personal data (article 21 GDPR), see the text in bold below for more details
- Lodge a complaint with us and/or the competent data protection authority (article 77 GDPR)

Right to object pursuant to article 21 GDPR

You have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to the processing of personal data concerning you which is based on article 6 (1) point (f) GDPR (data processing on the basis of legitimate interest). If you object, we will no longer process your personal data unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights, and freedoms, or the processing serves the purpose of asserting, exercising, or defending legal claims.

Am I obliged to provide the personal data requested?

In order for you to participate in the Annual General Meeting and/or exercise shareholder rights and, in particular, to vote, the processing as well as the collection of your personal data is absolutely essential.

Would you like to complain about the handling of your data?

You have the possibility to contact our Data Protection Officer (see above) or a data protection supervisory authority. The data protection supervisory authority responsible for GFT Technologies SE is:

Landesbeauftragter für den Datenschutz und die Informationsfreiheit Baden-Württemberg
